Subscriber Agreement

host.name.my · v1.0 · 2026-09-17 · companion to CP/CPS

By using a host.name.my signing certificate, the subscriber agrees:

1. Identity. The name and email on the certificate are accurate and belong to you.
2. Key/credential protection. You will keep your account password safe and will not let others sign under your account.
1. Use. You will use the certificate only to sign documents you are authorised to sign, and will not sign forged or unlawful documents.
1. Custody. Private keys are generated and stored by the service, encrypted (AES-256); the passphrase is encrypted with the application key. You acknowledge the service can perform signing operations on your behalf.
1. Revocation. You will request revocation promptly if your account or key is compromised.
1. Acceptance. You accept the certificate on first use.
2. No qualified signature. Certificates are not qualified digital signatures and are not trusted by public trust stores.
1. Liability. The service is provided "as is"; see the Terms of Service.
